

Building a Culture of Peace Monthly film series presents

We Still Live Here Âs Nutayuneân

a film by Anne Makepeace

"There is nothing I know of that's anything like the Wampanoag case."
Noam Chomsky

Âs Nutayuneân tells a remarkable story of cultural revival by the Wampanoag of Southeastern Massachusetts. Their ancestors ensured the survival of the first English settlers in America, and lived to regret it. Now they are bringing their language home again.

MONDAY, OCT 10, 2011, 7-9 PM

CONCORD UU CHURCH, 274 PLEASANT ST., CONCORD NH
Free & Everyone Welcome

Cosponsored by:

Concord Unitarian Universalist Church, Pace e Bene Nonviolence Service NE, Temple Beth Jacob, NH UCC Peace with Justice Advocates, American Friends Service Committee NH, and NH Peace Action.

For information:

LR Berger, NE Associate Pace e Bene Nonviolence Service NE, 496 1056

poster design by Jessica Ellis, behold.peace.kindness@gmail.com